

March

Lyrics by Harshit Bhardwaj

Verse 1

Look at the sun is rising from the west
This is the end of tyranny a wind of change
We have suffered enough we've lived like the slaves
we can't take it anymore, oppression makes us suffocate

This is the end of tyranny a wind of change
we can't take it anymore, oppression makes us suffocate

Chorus

Patience is over, you can not decide our fate religion is a myth, there is no god in this place

Bridge

Break these shackles
Free to speak and express
Free to think and then act
Free to not believe, believe in your god

Chorus

Gather, March , Revolt, Get Freedom

Verse 2

No god has made us different then why we fight
'we are imbecile, we always believe their lies
Its time we gather, march and revolt
Its time we set our mind and soul free

Gather, March , Revolt, Get Freedom
